

The Thief's Story

1. How does the thief's youthfulness affect his decisions and outlook on life?
2. How does the narrator's honesty about being a thief make the story more compelling?
3. How does Anil's trust in the thief contrast with society's usual suspicion of strangers?
4. How does the story show that kindness can reform even the most dishonest people?
5. How does the thief's internal conflict highlight the struggle between temptation and conscience?
6. How does the simple lifestyle of Anil influence the narrator's change of heart?
7. How does the act of learning to read and write become more valuable than stolen money?
8. How does the narrator's decision to return the money reflect his hidden potential?
9. How does the story challenge the stereotype that criminals are beyond redemption?
10. How does the thief's admiration for Anil's generosity shape his transformation?
11. How does the use of first-person narration create intimacy with the reader?
12. How does the rainy night become symbolic of the narrator's emotional turmoil?
13. How does Anil's calm reaction at the end reflect his faith in human goodness?
14. How does the story critique the materialism that drives people towards crime?
15. How does the thief's realization of education's power act as a turning point?
16. How does the contrast between Anil's simplicity and the thief's cunning drive the plot?
17. How does the ending suggest that change requires both opportunity and guidance?
18. How does the narrator's choice to stay back with Anil reflect long-term growth?
19. How does the story balance suspense and moral lessons without being preachy?
20. Why is the story titled The Thief's Story rather than Anil's Story, despite Anil's major role?